

Mid-Term Exam

Answer the following questions, each in a decent paragraph:

- 1- Provide a full commentary on the following text:
This power doth all powers transcend,
To all intelligence a friend
Exists, the greatest and the best
Throughout all the worlds, to make them blest.
- 2- Evaluate the importance of the technique of the flashback in "Amina".
- 3- What differences in cultural assumptions explain why Nkwame and Mark view the prospect of attending a black college so differently?
- 4- Draw a physical and psychological portrait of Desirée.
- 5- Why does Kate Chopin use French in "Desirée's Baby"?

Hassan II University
Faculty of Arts & Letters
English Studies

Pr. Ouamouch
S1 World Literature
January 2011

Final Exam

Write an outline and a paragraph for each of the following questions:

- 1- " Looking for a Rain God" concludes with the statement that the other villagers "could have killed something to make the rain fall." Explain what Head meant by this.
- 2- What civic values and principles do you get to know as a result of reading " Learning What was Never Taught"?
- 3- Discuss the picture you formed of the society in which "Desiree's Baby " took place.
- 4- What is irony? Why are the condolences offered by Amina's sisters-in-law ironic?

Hassan II University
Faculty of Arts & Letters
English Studies

Pr. Ouamouch
S1 World Literature
January 2011

Make up Test

Write an outline and a paragraph for each of the following questions:

- 1- ~~is it~~ possible that Amina's husband takes another wife in the future?
- 2- ~~What~~ obstacles did Reichel have to overcome in obtaining accurate accounts of the holocaust from her teachers?
- 3- What is the difference between the flashback and foreshadowing?
- 4- Why is it important to know that the events described in "Looking for a Rain God" occurred after seven years of drought?