COMPREHENSION

Read Kate's article carefully:

For me, the most interesting person in history was Leonardo da Vinci. He was a painter, a sculptor and an inventor. He studied anatomy and botany and he liked many other things too.

He was born in Vinci, near Florence—in Italy, on the 15th of April 1452. He didn't go to school, but he studied maths, Latin and geometry at home. When he was 14, he started work. He was very good at art so he worked for a famous painter and learned techniques with him. Then he went to live in Milan in 1482 and, from this time on, Leonardo painted his famous works, for example The Last Supper. He painted The Mona Lisa, probably the most famous painting in the world, in about 1505. It is in the Louvre Museum in Paris.

I like Leonardo da Vinci because of his drawings. He was interested in maths, science and anatomy, and he drew people and bodies perfectly. He also drew inventions, for example a flying machine similar to the modern helicopter. He was the typical Renaissance man.
