Dear Michael,

Thank you for your letter. I'm sorry I didn't reply sooner, but I had exams at school last week so I was busy. The Chemistry and Math exams weren't bad, but the History exam was awful. I only answered three questions out of ten! Well, it isn't worth worrying about them now. Let's talk about something else.

Next week I'm going hunting with my father. We've got a little chalet in the mountains. I never kill anything, so I'm sure the animals will be safe. The last time we went hunting, the only thing I hit was a tree.

It was my birthday on Thursday, and I had a big surprise. My aunt in Toronto offered me a choice of some new clothes or a motorbike. You won't be surprised to hear that I chose the motorbike. It's fantastic.

I can get to school in ten minutes – twice as fast as on the bus.

Love
Pete
