Enjoy a weekend in one of Europe's wonderful cities!

A- Almeria

Almeria is a lively city in Spain. Visitors will enjoy the beaches and shops that stay open late. Do you like food? The Puerta de Purchena is the best place to find great food at great prices. Do you like art? Then you must go to the art museum. You can rent a car cheaply and visit all the beautiful old buildings. Almeria has something for everyone!

B- Bratislava

Bratislava is on the Danube River and it is the largest city in Slovakia. There are no cars in the city centre, so it's great to walk around. There are lots of lovely squares and buildings. You can visit one of the art museums and don't forget to visit the popular Bratislava Castle. The view from there is fantastic!

C- Ljubljana

Ljubljana is the most interesting city in Slovenia. You can walk around the city centre or you can rent a bike. For shopping, visit the market next to the Ljubljanica River. There are lots of things for children too. Take them to see the animals at the zoo or to watch a children's play at the theatre. Enjoy a meal at Foculus (3 Gregorciceva Street) – there are more than 60 different pizzas – it's great value!
