Hi, Erin !

I'm in the Canadian city of Montreal with my mum and dad. It's a fantastic city. My aunt lives here and we're with her for a month.

Montreal is a very interesting place . It's the biggest bilingual city in the world-a lot of people speak English and French. People speak to me in French in the shops, but when I don't understand they speak in perfect English!

Mum speaks French fluently. She uses her French every, day but she doesn't understand some Canadian French words.

Montreal is very friendly and there are people from different countries. We go to Italian cafés in the "little Italy" part of the city or Chinese restaurants in the "Chinatown" area.

My favourite place is the Mount Royal Park-it's got an amazing view of the city.

Lots of love,

Rosa
