Second Term Test -1 Class: 2/G:.....

Time: 60mn Mark:/20

A.....

For many people, life is about working and having a lot of money and possessions. Without these things, your life isn't supposed to be very good. Some people disagree, however, Paul Cortez is one young person who lives an 'alternative lifestyle'.

Where does he live?

Paul lives in a very expensive city, London, but he doesn't mind not having money. He stays in a squat*. It's not his home and he doesn't pay rent money. In many countries, this is not allowed, but in the UK, it's not illegal. He normally spends less than £1 a day.

B.....

Paul doesn't use public transport, and he hasn't got a car. He always rides a bicycle. 'It's cold in winter but I prefer it,' he says.

C.....

Paul doesn't have a paid job, but he's not bored. He is allowed to study very cheaply, because he hasn't got a job. He also works at a charity shop. He meets some facsinating people there.

D.....

Paul says that local cafés and supermarkets throw a lot of food, and he eats this. On a typical day, he has sandwiches and fresh fruit. Does he miss his favourite food and drinks? 'Well, a really good coffee, may be!'

*Squat: a squat is a home with squatters in it. A squatter lives in somebody else's home, without permission, and without paying any money. You can do this in the UK, untill the home owner tells you to leave.
