III. WRITING (10 POINTS)

Write a reply to the following email that you've received from your English friend.

Dear friend,

How are you doing? I hope you are fine. I just want to tell you that I'm having some problems with my parents; they don't let me go out at night, or invite my friends. They're always complaining about my hairstyle, the way I dress or the kind of music I listen to. They're making my life terrible! What about you? Do you have any problems with your parents? How do they treat you? Tell me about your relationship with them.

Hello Dear friend,

I just read your email this morning, and I feel terribly sorry for you. First of all I would like to tell you that your parents have different thoughts and concerns, so they must have been very worried about you. This is their way to protect you. Please don't get them wrong, and try to find a way to communicate your ideas to them. I'm sure they will be understanding. After all they are the ones who raised you, so they must always love you no matter how they express it. Second I know you quite well, you always do things big. In my opinion, I think you should be careful in choosing a certain life style. For me, my life is very peaceful, I get along with my parents well and I find no trouble communicating with them. We usually go out and do family activities together to keep up with each other's lives. You should try it out, it's so much fun. Well, I hope my email helped a little bit, and I hope I could see you soon.

Sincerely yours
